WORD

First Reading

Isaiah 52:1-5

Psalm 36:5-10

Refrain (sung by all at the beginning and as indicated):

Your love, O LORD, reaches | to the heavens,
and your faithfulness | to the clouds.

Your righteousness is like | the strong mountains,
your justice like | the great deep;

REFRAIN

How priceless is your | love, O God!

All people take refuge under the shadow | of your wings.

They feast upon the abundance | of your house;
you give them drink from the river of | your delights.

REFRAIN

For with you is the | well of life,
and in your light | we see light.

Continue your lovingkindness to | those who know you,
and your favor to those who are | true of heart.

WELCOME TO TODAY'S PRESIDER

Craig A. Satterlee is professor at the Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago, where he holds the Axel Jacob and Gerda Maria (Swanson) Carlson Chair in Homiletics. He is also Dean of the ACTS Doctor of Ministry in Preaching Program and adjunct professor of theology at the University of Notre Dame.

Professor Satterlee received the B.A. from the University of Michigan, M.Div. and S.T.M. (pastoral care) from Trinity Lutheran Seminary, Columbus, Ohio, and M.A. and Ph.D. in homiletics and liturgical studies from the University of Notre Dame.

Professor Satterlee is the author of seven books, serves as editor of "Preaching Helps" for Currents in Theology and Mission, and frequently contributes to both scholarly and ecclesiastical journals. Dr. Satterlee's scholarly interests include the relationship of preaching and areas of congregational life and mission, including liturgy, spirituality, stewardship, mission, and leadership. He also studies patristic preaching, most notably that of Ambrose of Milan, and the worship of the early church.

Ordained in 1987, Pastor Satterlee served congregations in Upstate New York and Michigan before being called to LSTC. He regularly leads continuing education events throughout the church. Firmly grounded in parish ministry, Pastor Satterlee currently serves as consulting pastor of St. Andrew Lutheran Church, Glenwood, IL, and also preaches and presides in congregations of the ELCA.

As a person who is legally blind, Dr. Satterlee has a passion for ministry with persons with disabilities and a unique perspective on the Christian faith, church, and world.

RECEIVING COMMUNION

"Believing in the real presence of Christ, this church practices eucharistic hospitality. All baptized persons are welcomed to Communion when they are visiting in the congregations of this church." (from the ELCA's sacramental practices statement)

As a sign of the unity the sacrament gives, we all share the same elements. If you are unable to receive wheat bread or wine, be sure that in a single element you receive the Presence and all the gifts of the sacrament.

If you are not prepared to receive the elements today, but would like to come forward for a blessing, bring a copy of the bulletin with you -- that'll be the sign of your intention for the distributors.

JANUARY'S AND FEBRUARY'S OFFERINGS

All the offerings from Communion services during these months will be donated to Survivor's Inc., which provides education and safe housing for Adams County residents affected by domestic abuse.
